CONFEREES AGREE.

Agreement Finally Reached on the Omnibus Territorial Bill.

South Dakota People to Vote on the Adoption of a Constitution.

Constitutional Conventions to be Held in Other Territories.

Provisions Made for the Election of State and Other Officials.

[illegible]

Conclusion Reached.

WASHINGTON, February 19.—After [illegible] hours of consultation the conferees on the omnibus territorial bill reached a conclusion this evening and Platt and Springer are preparing a report for presenting on the return of the bill to the two houses tomorrow. The bill as agreed to by the conferees gives the names of the two Dakotas as North Dakota and South Dakota. The people of South Dakota decide by vote upon the adoption of the Sioux Falls constitution on May 14 and the location of the capital is to be settled by election on the same day.

The residents of North Dakota will vote upon the question of prohibition and for the election of delegates to constitutional conventions and for a full list of state officers on the first Tuesday in October. The people may vote upon the constitution proposed by the conventions and adopted after the president's proclamation to that effect. The governor of each territory may order an election for members of the legislatures and representatives in congress. The legislatures when elected, forty from each and eleven members each in the upper house, are to take the oath at the beginning of the first session of the Fifty-first congress in December next, at which time the representatives shall also be admitted to seats in the house. These provisions apply also to the senators and representatives of South Dakota.

Pueblo's Pony Club.

CHICAGO, February 19.—There was a couple of excitement in base ball circles today. Chicago is soon to lose two of its crack league players. Fred Pfeffer, second, the small but hustling captain of the Pueblo, Colorado, pony team of the Colorado state league, arrived here this evening and immediately began to hunt for players. He wants only two more and they must be "ponies," he says. It is hoped to have the Pueblo team composed entirely of "small, but all mighty" men. The other teams of Leadville, Denver and Colorado Springs are composed of "mighty large men." Drummond said: "If we can have one team of a uniform small size and all good players it will look well to see the 'ponies' thrash the 'mastodons.' We expect a big base ball craze out our way during the coming season. I have my eye on Lohr of the Cleveland club and if he accepts I'll sign him as a change catcher. It will take some calling to get the other man I want."

Cleveland's Reply.

CLEVELAND, February 19.—The following is a copy of President Cleveland's letter in reply to an invitation to be present at the convention of the National Tariff Reform league which met in this city this afternoon.

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
WASHINGTON, D. C.,
January 24th, 1889.

Henry White, Esq., Secretary.

DEAR SIR—I have received the invitation of the Tariff Reform league to be present at the convention of tariff reformers to be held in Chicago. I have perused the circular of the league accompanying the invitation, in which the objects and purposes of the convention are scientifically set forth. The scheme of practical and efficient work therein described meets with my hearty approval and promises, if honestly adhered to, the most valuable results in the furtherance of a cause which is very near to the interests and welfare of our people. The danger which we have to guard against is the misleading of our countrymen by specious theories cunningly contrived and likely offering to the people relief from recent burdens. The declared purpose of your league will not be attained until all those interested in the economic question which is now pressed upon our attention are freed from all sophistications and clouding fallacies and until the object of tariff reform is presented to them as a topic involving the relieving of the plain people of needless and unjust burdens. The question is a simple and plain one and needs but to be carefully presented to be understood. It is the positive duty of your organization to warn the people against deception. My extreme interest in the work which you have undertaken and in the excellent object of the proposed convention would lead me to accept your invitation if it were possible to do so, but my public duties here positively prevent such a compliance. Hoping that the convention will be very successful and with the earnest wish for the prosperity and success of your league in its efforts to enlighten and benefit the people, I am very truly,

Yours,
GROVER CLEVELAND.

Parnell Coin [illegible].

LONDON, February 19.—The court room was crowded to day when the Parnell commission resumed its sitting. Lawyer Lechere, John Morley, Labouchere and two prominent persons were present. Mac Donald, manager of the Times, was the first witness. He declined to say whether he regarded the letters of the 9th of January and the 15th of May as the only important ones among the [illegible] have which the secretary of the Irish national patriotic union handled to him. Mr. Hanna sharply rebuked the witness for his refusal to answer. Mac Donald continuing said that the letters ought to be taken as a whole and as a [illegible] they were compromising. The witness said that he had forgotten whether [illegible] had also submitted other specimens of Egan's writing. He could not be positive whether he then had [illegible] specimens of Egan's writing. He was convinced that the Egan and Parnell letters were genuine before the first article on Parnellism and Crime was published by the Times. The witness [illegible] £500 for the Parnell letter of the 9th of June and the Egan letter of May. The total payment made to Houston amounted to £4,750. He had particularly avoided asking from what source the letters had been obtained before [illegible]

SOCIAL GATHERINGS.

Myrtle Lodge Celebrates the Silver Anniversary of the Order.

A Large Crowd Assembles to Honor the Occasion.

Prof. Durgin's Dancing Academy the Scene of a Masquerade Ball.

Happy Juveniles Dance in Unique and Beautiful Costumes.

The order of Knights of Pythias was founded in the city of Washington D. C. February 19th, 1864. Twenty five years ago Justus H. Rathbun and four others instituted the first lodge of the order which now numbers its members by hundreds of thousands. The order, which has for its motto "Friendship, Charity and Benevolence," has been remarkable for its sudden constant and rapid growth. Yesterday being the twenty-fifth anniversary of the order, or the "Silver anniversary," Myrtle lodge of the city celebrated the event with a public entertainment at Castle hall last night. Handsome invitations were sent out some days ago and at the opening hour last night fully two hundred ladies and gentlemen had responded to the bidding with their presence. The hall in the Robertson block had been tastefully decorated with smilax and cut flowers and hung with the emblems of the order, while the brilliant uniforms of the members of the uniform rank gave additional color to the scene.

A very interesting programme had been prepared, but on account of some of the performers not being able to be present, it was partially changed but all were well pleased with each number as presented. The exercises began with the opening ode followed by a prayer. Dr. W. C. Allen delivered an address entitled the "Silver Anniversary," in which he gave a history of the order, with its inception and growth and the tenets of its faith. Following this dress Professor [illegible] gave a duet on the piano which was so well received that they were compelled to respond to an encore. Miss Alice Baker recited "Deacon and Pythias" in an admirable manner, throwing into it a great deal of feeling and expression. Prof. [illegible] Seymour followed with a vocal solo. Mr. F. A. Mangold, D. D. G. C., delivered an address entitled "Our Heroes," in which he recited many brave acts performed by members of the order during its twenty-five years of history. Mrs. Mulholland followed with a vocal solo, which was well received. Misses Mamie and Blanche Herman gave a duet on the violin and piano, and Mr. J. K. Miller closed the entertainment with a few remarks.

The members of Myrtle lodge then served the guests with a nice lunch of ice cream, cake, sandwiches and coffee. At the close the young people present indulged in dancing for an hour or more.

When departing all expressed themselves greatly pleased with the manner in which Myrtle lodge had celebrated the "Silver Anniversary," and left with many good wishes for the continued prosperity both for the order and its members in this city.

Professor H. C. Durgin's dancing academy presented a lovely scene last night. At 8 o'clock the orchestra struck up a march and thirty couples of young people emerged from the cloak rooms dressed in pretty fancy costumes, and for three hours continued to dance, laugh and make merry with the careless happiness of youth. The occasion was the fancy dress party for which the Misses Sylvia Brigham, Stella White, Madge Lamb and Lalla Reed issued invitations two weeks ago. The little ladies received their guests gracefully, and during the evening lent every endeavor to entertain them. The masonic lodge room was used as a reception room, and in a corner of the hall room a table was set and the guests served with a lunch during the evening. Professor Durgin, who has been the instructor of the little people in the art of dancing, furnished the music, assisted by Mrs. Ida Lawrence and Mr. John Kloepfer. Accompanying each of the little ones were either their parents or some older brother or sister, so that the rooms were well filled, and the flowers, the lights and the pretty costumes of the gracefully dancing children made a scene hard to describe. The grand march was led by Miss Madge Lamb and Master Miles La Barthe, and through the eighteen numbers of the programme gay flower girls waltzed with French princes the red of the zouaves mingled with the plaid of the Highlander, and winter, spring and night chatted with gay cavaliers from Mexico, from West Point and from the decks of the good ship Pinafore. The little gentlemen were devoted in their attentions to the little ladies, who received the homage due them with the dignity and grace of the "old school" of politeness. The order of dances was as follows:

1. Grand March
2. Waltz
3. Polka
4. York German figure led by Sylvia Brigham
5. Waltz
6. Reverse
7. Portuguese Step Waltz, diern an figure led by Stella White
8. Schottische
9. Knickerbocker
10. Mazurka
11. Newport, diernan figure led by Lalla Reed
12. Lancers
13. Delta
14. Polka
15. Waltz (society mix)
16. Pin quadrille
17. Polka-Red
18. Plain quadrille

Among the little folks present were the Misses Madge Lamb, Sylvia Brigham, Stella White, Lalla Reed, Dora Skinner, Flo Rowell, Bertie Anderson, Lula Fields, Mamie and Blanche Herman, [illegible] Bertie Wade, Lord Plantleroy costume.

Carl Schuyler—Knight's costume.
Jennie Hall—Highlander.
Harold Hull—Page.
Homer Collette—Cadet.
Charlie Pearson—Costume of the first French empire.
Sylvia Brigham—Little Bo-Peep.
Lulu Reed—Spring.
Stella White—Winter.
Madge Lamb—Butterfly.
Dora Skinner—Tambourine girl.
Jessie Barnes—Maude Muller.
Florence Dow—Folly.
Bertie Anderson—Flower girl.
Nellie Wright—Night.
Lulu Fields—Artist costume.
Louie Perkins—Yum Yum.
Elsie Rowell—Black hat.

At 11 o'clock the guests bid their young hostesses good night and departed for their homes highly delighted with their evening's entertainment.

Hartford Ruins.

HARTFORD, February 19.—The work of taking the bodies from the ruins of the Park Central hotel was continued all night and to day. The following is a full list of the bodies thus far recovered: George Gaines (colored), porter; Dwight H. Buell, jeweler, Hartford; George Engler, drug clerk, Hartford; J. W. Hoffman, Boston; J. C. Hill, Buffalo; Louis H. Brinkson, wife and child, Hartford; A. [illegible] J. Ketchum, Hartford; Edward Ketchum, Hartford; George W. Root, Rochester, N. Y.; an unknown; A. T. Tillotson, Cincinnati; Thomas F. McKue, New York; M. Galindy and wife, Hartford; charred remains, presumed to be those of Andrew F. Whitney; Dr. L. Perrin and wife; William Boyle, Hartford.

The ten patients of the hospital are all doing well to day and will recover. The remaining portion of the hotel proper has been pulled down, leaving only the four story annex. This has filled up the excavation, which had already been made, with an immense accumulation of masonry and timber, and it is very doubtful whether any more bodies can be recovered for many hours. If any are buried in the rear part. The bodies of Night Clerks Perry and Whiting are the only ones believed to be in the ruins. No bodies have been recovered since noon. Thayer and Risley, the engineer and his assistant, were arraigned in court this morning charged with manslaughter. They declared that they were not responsible for the explosion.

French Cabinet Trouble.

PARIS, February 19.—In spite of the continued negotiations the settlement of the cabinet difficulty appears to be as distant as ever. The failure of Meline indicates the absolute impossibility of forming a cabinet on Ferryist or opportunist lines. President Carnot to day offered the premiership to Tirard only to meet with another refusal. He then summoned Meline whom he urged to make another effort but he again declined to undertake the task and President Carnot then summoned Senator Meagin, a former minister and a well accredited report says that the president strongly inclines towards a cabinet formed mainly of senators. Such a ministry would have a better prospect of securing general support than a government composed of the more pronounced members of the chamber but late this evening nothing has been settled.

Carew Arrested.

LONDON, Feb. 19.—James Laurence Carew, member of parliament for North Kildare, was arrested to day in the eastern division of Perthshire, where an election is being held to fill the vacancy in the house of commons, caused by the death of Mr. Menzies, a liberal. Carew was taken immediately to the house of Mr. Keubach, the Gladstonian contestant for the seat. He was arrested on a warrant issued against him in Ireland for refusing to answer a summons for violating the crimes act.

O'Brien Sent Up Again.

DUBLIN, February 19.—When the case of William O'Brien was resumed at Tralee to day, O'Brien refused to allow Healy, his counsel, to apologize for the language the latter had used to Colonel Turner during the progress of the case yesterday. O'Brien also declined to make any further defense against the charges brought against him under the crimes act. The magistrate thereupon sentenced him to six months' imprisonment at hard labor.

Tariff Reform Convention.

CHICAGO, February 19.—The convention of the American Tariff Reform association opened this afternoon, Secretary John Z. White calling the meeting to order. He said the object of the convention was to arouse popular sentiment on the question of reform in the tariff and he read a letter from President Cleveland. Great applause greeted the reading and routine business was then taken up.

Law and Order League.

BOSTON, February 19.—The seventh annual convention of the Citizens' Law and Order League of the United States was called to order this morning by President Bonney of Chicago, who addressed the convention briefly. Toronto was fixed upon as the next place of meeting. President Bonney was re elected. In the long list of vice presidents is the name of J. M. Wallace of Colorado.

REAL ESTATE!

Don't Go Three Miles Out in the Country for Lots, when you can get them for the Same Money in PARRISH'S ADDITION!

Only 3 Blocks from Cascade Avenue!
Only 3 Blocks from The Antlers Hotel!
Only 4½ Blocks from Post Office!

THE STREETS IN PARRISH'S ADDITION

Are 100 to 140 feet in width. THE ALLEYS are all 20 feet wide. There are no 60 or 80 feet streets, and narrow, 10-feet alleys, such as are found in other loudly advertised "Additions," with high sounding titles, where you pay high prices for lots, without duly considering that you are throwing away your money.

In the Alley Behind Every Lot in Parrish's Addition

There is a 3-inch Water Pipe, connected at Chestnut street with a 16-inch main; the Largest in the City's System. THE MAIN CITY DITCH, taking pure, clear water from the Fountain, runs just back of PARRISH'S ADDITION, and within a stone's throw of it.

YOU ARE SURE TO GET WATER

(Both from Pipes and Ditch) in PARRISH'S ADDITION if there is any water in the Fountain even if other parts of the city are suffering from scarcity of the precious fluid.

REMEMBER THE FOREGOING, and then, when I tell you I will sell you a First-Class

Lot in Parrish's Addition for $350

To $1,000 a full size lot 50 by 190 feet do not hesitate a moment about buying. You can buy two lots on a corner, and erect pretty little cottages across them, giving each cottage a neat, pretty little yard, and readily rent them, owing to the location, etc.,

To Pay You 25 to 35 Per Cent Per Annum on the Entire Investment.

WHERE CAN YOU DO THIS ELSEWHERE?

THE STREET CAR LINE RUNS THROUGH PARRISH'S ADDITION, from East to West, and will doubtless soon be extended to the North, past the "Mesa Road," up to THE ROCK ISLAND SHOPS. Lots are sold on Terms to Suit Buyers, if possible.

I AM ALSO SELLING

LOTS IN CALVERT HEIGHTS!

On Easy Terms, and at from $300 to $400. They bear very much the same relation to

COLORADO CITY,

As do Parrish Addition Lots to Colorado Springs, and

I CAN RECOMMEND THEM AS AN INVESTMENT!

SURE TO PAY A BIG PROFIT

DURING THE COMING YEAR.

CALVERT HEIGHTS!

Is surrounded by growing and progressive enterprises. THE MIDLAND SHOPS lie at its Northeast corner. Colorado City proper is North and Northeast of it. Bott's Additions join it on the North and Northwest. Colorado Springs itself is in full view, only two miles to the Southeast, and last though not least important,

The Great Glass Manufacturing Works

Are to be erected (at once) just south of CALVERT HEIGHTS. I have arranged to have every lot supplied with PURE WATER IN PIPES.

THE LOCATION IS SUPERB!

THE SURROUNDING VIEWS ARE MAGNIFICENT!

Last year I recommended you to buy lots in Parrish's Addition, and they have paid a better Profit than any other lots on the market. This year I urge you to add to YOUR INVESTMENT AS MANY LOTS IN CALVERT HEIGHTS as you can afford to buy, with the result that, before the year is out, you will again be glad that you have taken my advice.

CALL EARLY! BUY SOON!

There are not very many lots altogether, and those who apply late, may find them all gone, and will have to Pay an Advance.

There were several misstatements in the GAZETTE'S real estate and building items on Sunday, although they were collected with care from presumably responsible persons. President Slocum states that no plans have as yet been adopted for the new club house Four sets are being considered, two by Denver parties and those of the Western Building and Supply company, made by Mr. Lent, and those of Pease & Barber.

The GAZETTE has several times spoken of the real estate firm of Schlessinger & White recently. Mr. White and Mr. Schlessinger have been occupying the same offices but have never formed a partnership. Mr Schlessinger is about to locate in Pueblo and the credit for the sales in Boulder Heights is due Mr White alone Nine of the twenty-four lots in block four of Boulder Heights were sold yesterday. The celebrated Mendelssohn Quintette club of Boston, will give a grand concert at the opera house Friday evening. In all the forty years of its existence this famous string quintette has never comprised better talent than at the present time The veteran Thomas Ryan, with his clarionet, is still with them, and they boast the finest violoncellist in the United States The last visit of the Mendelssohn Quintette to Colorado was at Christmas 1883, with Mme. Christine Nilsson. The vocalist this time is Miss Alice Ryan, daughter of Mr. Thomas Ryan and a pupil of the famous Marchesi. A rare treat is in store for lovers of the genuinely good in music.

It is hard for residents of the slow-going towns of the east to realize how a city of two or three hundred, or even a thousand inhabitants can spring up in a few weeks in the rapidly growing west, but such is the case as has been often proved. Among the most notable instances of this kind in this immediate vicinity during the past few years has been the town of Falcon, twenty miles east on the Rock Island Just about a year ago the final line which decided that the Rock Island road should cross the Denver, Texas and Ft Worth at that point, was made, and at that time the present site of Falcon was a barren piece of prairie. In September last the Falcon Town company was organized, with Mr Louis R Ehrich as president, and to-day the town has 200 inhabitants a $6000 hotel, a postoffice, a school, a newspaper, a grocery, drug store, meat market, etc Both of the railroads have built nice depots with restaurants attached. So great has been the growth of the town that it has completely absorbed the neighboring town of Granger There is every reason why Falcon should be a continually growing and becoming town lying as it does in the cattle district and surrounded with a rich agricultural country Its situation at the junction of these two great railroads gives it the best of shipping advantages, especially in the matter of coal, as the Rock Island's coal mine is only a few miles north The future outlook for the town is bright indeed

CONFEREES AGREE.

Agreement Finally Reached on the Omnibus Territorial Bill.

South Dakota People to Vote on the Adoption of a Constitution.

Constitutional Conventions to be Held in Other Territories.

Provisions Made for the Election of [illegible]

Conclusion Reached.

WASHINGTON, February 19.—After many hours of consultation the conferees on the omnibus territorial bill reached a final issue this evening and Platt and Springer are preparing a report to bring up the return of the bill to the two houses to morrow. The bill as agreed to by the conferees takes the name of the two Dakotas as North Dakota and South Dakota. The people of South Dakota are to vote upon the adoption of the Sioux Falls constitution on May 14 and the location of the capital is left to be settled by election on the same date.

The residents of North Dakota, Washington and Montana may vote for the election of delegates to constitutional conventions and for a full list of state officers on the first Tuesday in October. The people may vote upon the constitution proposed by the conventions, and adopted after the president's proclamation to that effect, the governor of each territory may order an election for members of the legislature and representatives in congress. The legislatures elected, may then meet and elect senators early in time to take their seats at the beginning of the first regular session of the Fifty-first congress in December next, at which time the representatives elect also be admitted to seats in the house. These provisions apply also to the senators and representatives of South Dakota.

[illegible] Pony Club.

CHICAGO, February 19.—There was a little excitement in foot ball circles today. Chicago is soon to lose two of its crack league players. Elliott, Dru[illegible] and the small but hustling captain of the Pueblo, Colorado, pony team of the Colorado state league, arrived here this evening and immediately began to hunt up players. He wants only two men and they must be "ponies," because it is proposed to have the Pueblo team composed entirely of "small, but all mighty men." The other teams of Leadville, Denver and Colorado Springs are composed of "only large men." Drummond said, "and if we can have our team of a uniform size and all good players it will look well to see the 'ponies' thrash the giants." We expect a big base ball craze out our way during the coming season. I have my eye on Eddy of the Chicago league and if he accepts I'll sign him as a change catcher. It will take some hustling to get the other man I suppose."

Cleveland's Reply.

CHICAGO, February 19.—The following is a copy of President Cleveland's letter in reply to an invitation to be present at the convention of the National Tariff Reform league which met in this city this afternoon:

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
WASHINGTON, D. C.,
January 24th, 1889.

[illegible] White Pag[illegible] Chicago.

DEAR SIR—I have received the invitation of the Tariff Reform league to be present at the convention of tariff reformers to be held in Chicago. I have perused the circular of the league and find in it the invitation, in which the objects and purposes of the convention are distinctly set forth. The scheme of practical and efficient work therein recorded meets with my hearty approval and promises, if honestly adhered to, the most valuable results in the furtherance of a cause which is very near to the interests and welfare of our people. The danger which we have to guard against is the misleading of our countrymen by specious arts cunningly contrived and likely to bring to the people relief from tariff burdens. The declared purpose of your league will not be attained until all those interested in the economic action which is now pressed upon our attention are freed from all sophistical and misleading fallacies and until the subject of tariff reform is presented to them as a topic involving the relieving of the plain people of useless and unjust burdens. The question is a simple and familiar one and needs but to be correctly presented to be understood. It is the positive duty of your organization to guard against deception. My intense interest in the work which your association has undertaken and in the excellent object of the proposed convention, [illegible] if it were possible to do so, but [illegible] are positively prevent [illegible] Hoping that the convention will prove very successful and with a earnest wish for the prosperity and success of your league in its efforts to enlighten and benefit the people, I am very truly

[illegible] GROVER CLEVELAND."

Parnell Commission.

LONDON, February 19.—The court was crowded this day when the Parnell commission resumed its sitting. Lawson, John Morley, Lefevre and other prominent persons were present. T. Mac Donald, manager of the Times, was the first witness. He declined to say whether he regarded the letters of the 8th of January and the 15th of May as the only important ones among the [illegible] which the secretary of the Irish National Land League refused to answer. Mac Donald [illegible] said that the letters were taken as a whole and as a [illegible] composing. The witness said he had forgotten whether [illegible] also submitted other [illegible] Egan's writing. He could not say whether he then had [illegible] Egan's writing. He was certain that the Egan and Parnell letters were genuine before the first article of Parnellism and Crime was published by the Times. The witness said Houston £750 for the Parnell letter of the 8th of June and the Egan letter. The total payment made to Houston amounted to £5500. He had carefully avoided asking from what source the letters had been obtained before Houston [illegible] was found to be a forgery. [illegible] when the letters were first given to the Times newspaper.

The letters were supplied at a certain time of the prosecution of the proceedings on Parnellism and Crime. McDonald said that the Times statement that Houston's statements were accepted in the belief that he was based upon information supplied to the writer of the letters. He did not know certainly who Houston was and was not bound to tell. He could not know. The action of the Times was entirely motive for all statements made in his paper and therefore counsel could not demand of the witness the names of contributors. The counsel for Parnell and Egan said that he could [illegible] demand the name of the author of the article because he was bound to test the truth of such grave charges. The [illegible] was entitled to investigate the matter in order to see from the foundation of the statements. The witness said that he could not name the writer without making inquiries. The "Parnellism and Crime" series of articles were not all written by one man. He counsel for Parnell asked the witness to inquire who the author was. The court expressed doubt as to whether if the witness could not remember, whether he could be required to seek information on the subject. Counsel for Parnell said that the witness could be forced to do so. Finally the court ruled that counsel was not entitled to ask the witness to make inquiries but that he might question him as to anything within his personal knowledge in connection with the specific facts.

Excitement at Tahiti.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 19.—The schooner Tahiti from Tahiti brings word that there is the greatest excitement there over the news of the trouble at Samoa. The excitement has been heightened by the operations of the French toward Bala Bala Menshenne and Raiera which are the leeward islands of the Society group. The French have expressed their intention to take possession of these islands but have been met with the most determined opposition on the part of the natives. In the lower part of the principal island occupied by the French the natives have gotten beyond the reach of their enemies, having retreated to the mountain fastnesses, and when the opportunity offers they descend and harass their traditional foes. There seems to be little probability of their being brought into subjection for some time.

Colonial Sympathy.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 19.—The discussion of the Samoan question in New Zealand and Australia has shown that the sympathy of the colonies is with the action of the United States government in appropriating money to protect its interests, and a declaration is made that in case of serious trouble between America and Germany over the islands the sympathy of the colonies would be with the former, no matter what position England assumes. Speaking at a public banquet at Wellington, the capital of New Zealand, on January 22, Sir Harry Atkinson, premier of that colony, said: "I rejoice to look forward to a great union of all the English speaking races throughout the world, and I venture to say that whether in the course of time England or America is to be the center will depend upon our English statesmen."

The Tariff Bill.

WASHINGTON, February 19.—There is a suspicion in the minds of the friends of the bill to repeal the direct tax that the likely opposition in the house to the acceptance of the conference report on that bill to day, and the filibustering against its consideration was the result of an intimation from the president that he would prefer not to have to choose between approval of the bill and a direct veto. If action on the bill is delayed beyond to morrow, or if there should be a failure on the part of the senate committee on enrolled bills to deliver the bill to the president before next Thursday the way will be opened for a "pocket veto," or in other words the president may avail himself of his constitutional right to hold the bill ten days, which would carry it over March 4, and thus kill it.

Samoan Mails.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 19.—Ex-United States Consul to Samoa Greenbaum is quoted by the Examiner as saying with reference to mail matter not reaching Captain Leary when at the Samoan Islands. "It is nothing new to me. When in Samoa I was informed by an employe of the German Trading company that they had a regular system of opening letters by steaming them, taking out the contents and making a copy of all correspondence therein and then replacing them in the proper manner without being noticed. On this account I used a silk thread and ribbons as fastenings, sealing the envelope together securely to protect my mail, and I notified my government at Washington of this."

No Further Action Now.

WASHINGTON, February 19.—The senate committee on foreign relations has decided that it would not be politic to take further steps in the Samoan matter pending the proposed Berlin conference. This determination was reached as the result of a telegram from the editor of the New York World asking whether the committee desired to hear the testimony of its correspondent, J. C. Klein, now in San Francisco.

Union Pacific Bill.

WASHINGTON, February 19.—The committee on the president's measure relating to the Union and Central Pacific railroads had a meeting to day and decided to ask that the Union Pacific funding bill which has been on the senate calendar all this session as the special order be recommitted to the committee. This will preclude the possibility of accomplishing any legislation on the subject at this session.

Narrow Escape.

CINCINNATI, February 19.—The statement is published this morning that a fast train on the Louisville and Nashville railroad, carrying a car load of silver dollars and one hundred passengers, ran into a lot of ties placed on the track by robbers, near Walton, Ky., on Friday night, but the force of the shock broke the obstruction and the train passed safely on.

Fire in Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, February 19.—Early this morning the machine shops, car shops and locomotive house of the Cincinnati, Indianapolis, St. Louis and Chicago railway was found to be on fire. A strong wind was blowing from the west and when the firemen arrived the entire property was doomed. The loss to the railroad is estimated at $200,000, half of which is covered by insurance.

From the Isthmus.

PANAMA, VIA GALVESTON, Feb. 19.—Twenty five hundred men were discharged from canal work at Tauerrilla on the 16th inst. The contractors continue to curtail the force on all the sections. There is a strong military force on the line of the canal to maintain order.

SOCIAL GATHERINGS.

Myrtle Lodge Celebrates the Silver Anniversary of the Order.

A Large Crowd Assembles to Honor the Occasion.

Prof. Durgin's Dancing Academy the Scene of a Masquerade Ball.

Happy Juveniles Dance in Unique and Beautiful Costumes.

The order of Knights of Pythias was founded in the city of Washington, D. C., February 19th 1864. Twenty five years Justus H. Rathbone and four others instituted the first lodge of the order which now numbers its members by hundreds of thousands. The order, which has for its motto "Friendship, Charity and Benevolence," has been remarkable for its stability, constant and rapid growth. Yesterday being the twenty-fifth anniversary of the order, or the "Silver anniversary," Myrtle lodge of this city celebrated the event with a public entertainment at Castle hall last night. Handsome invitations were sent out some days ago, and at the opening hour last night fully two hundred ladies and gentlemen had responded to the bidding with their presence. The hall in the Robertson block had been tastefully decorated with smilax and cut flowers and hung with the emblems of the order, while the brilliant uniforms of the members of the uniform rank gave additional color to the scene. A very interesting programme had been prepared but, on account of some of the performers not being able to be present, it was partially changed, but all were well pleased with each number as presented. The exercises began with the opening ode followed by a prayer. Dr. W. C. Allen delivered an address entitled, the "Silver Anniversary," in which he gave a history of the order, with its inception and growth and the tenets of its faith. Following the address Professor Seymour and sister rendered a duet on the piano, which was so well received that they were compelled to respond to an encore. Miss Alice Baker recited "Damon and Pythias" in an admirable manner, throwing into it a great deal of feeling and expression. Professor Seymour followed with a vocal solo. Mr. F. A. Mangold, D. D. G. C., delivered an address entitled "Our Heroes," in which he recited many brave acts performed by members of the order during its twenty-five years of history. Mrs. Mulholland followed with a vocal solo, which was well received. Misses Mamie and Blanche Herman gave a duet on the violin and piano, and Mr. J. K. Miller closed the entertainment with a few remarks.

The members of Myrtle lodge then served the guests with a nice lunch of ice cream, cake, sandwiches and coffee. At the close the young people proceeded to dancing for an hour or more.

When departing all expressed themselves greatly pleased with the manner in which Myrtle lodge had celebrated the "Silver Anniversary," and left with many good wishes for the continued prosperity both for the order and its members in this city.

Professor H. C. Durgin's dancing academy presented a lovely scene last night. At 8 o'clock the orchestra struck up a march and thirty couples of young people emerged from the cloak rooms dressed in pretty fancy costumes, and for three hours continued to dance, laugh and make merry with the careless happiness of youth. The occasion was the fancy dress party for which the Misses Sylvia Brigham, Stella White, Madge Lamb and Lalla Reed issued invitations two weeks ago. The little ladies received their guests gracefully, and during the evening lent every endeavor to entertain them. The masonic lodge room was used as a reception room, and in a corner of the ball room a table was set and the guests served with a lunch during the evening. Professor Durgin, who has been the instructor of the little people in the art of dancing, furnished the music, assisted by Mrs. Ida Lawrence and Mr. John Kloepfer. Accompanying each of the little ones were either their parents or some older brother or sister, so that the rooms were well filled, and the flowers, the lights and the pretty costumes of the gracefully dancing children made a scene hard to describe. The grand march was led by Miss Madge Lamb and Master Jules La Barthe and through the eighteen numbers of the programme gay flower girls waltzed with French princes, the red of the roses mingled with the plaid of the Highlander, and winter spring and night chatted with gay cavaliers from Mexico, from West Point and from the decks of the good ship Pinafore. The little gentlemen were devoted in their attentions to the little ladies, who received the homage due them with the dignity and grace of the "old school" of politeness. The order of dances was as follows:

1. Grand March
2. Waltz
3. Polka
4. York (German figure led by Sylvia Brigham)
5. Waltz
6. Polka
7. Forward Step Waltz, (German figure led by Stella White)
8. Schottische
9. Kindergarten
10. Mazurka
11. Newport, (German figure led by Lalla Reed)
12. Lancers
13. Polka
14. Polka
15. Waltz, (society movement)
16. Pan quadrille
17. Polka-Dot
18. Plain quadrille

Among the little folks present were the Misses Madge Lamb, Sylvia Brigham, Stella White, Lalla Reed, Dora Skinner, Elsie Rowell, Bertie Anderson, Lula Fields, Mamie and Blanche Herman, Lucie Perkins, Fanny Dow, Hattie Crossy, Lottie Lamb, Lou McKinney, Eva McKinney, Hattie Crossy, Birdie Pegues, Nellie Wright, Sadie Goodyear, Nettie Dow, Lottie Pearson, Lizzie McCreery, Emma Stevens, Lizzie Whitney and Grace Gillette. Masters Frank Lawson, Andrew Lawson, Charlie Pearson, Jamie Hale, Percy Rolfe McCreery, Russell Alexander, Bert Alexander, Guy McCreery, Willie Johnson, Fred Stevens, Homer Gillette, Byron Fields, Celsus Link, Bert Barnes, Jules La Barthe, Louis Gillette, Jaquay Barnes, Dale Bonsteel, Artie Crossy, Guy Humphrey, Harold Hall, Berry Wright and Carl Schuyler.

An [illegible] were present and tastefully dressed, but among the costumes which were designed to represent something and that were particularly striking were the following:

At 11 o'clock the guests bid their young hosts good night and departed for their homes highly delighted with their evening's entertainment.

Hartford Disaster.

HARTFORD, February 19.—The work of taking the bodies from the ruins of the Park Central hotel was continued all night and to-day. The following is a full list of the bodies thus far recovered: George Gaines (colored), porter, Dwight H. Buell, jeweler, Hartford; George Engler, drug clerk, Hartford; J. W. Boston and, Boston, J. C. Hill, Buffalo, Louis H. Brunson, wife and child, Hartford; George J. Ketcham, Hartford; Edward Ketcham, Hartford; George W. Root, Brooklyn, N. Y.; an unknown; A. F. Tillinson, Cincinnati; Thomas F. McKee, New York; M. Galbody and wife, Hartford; charred remains, presumed to be those of Andrew F. Whitney, D. L. Perrin and wife, William Boyle, Hartford.

The injured patients at the hospital are all doing well to day and will recover. The remaining portion of the hotel proper has been pulled down, leaving only the four story annex. This has filled up the excavation, which had already been made, with an immense accumulation of masonry and timber, and it is very doubtful whether any more bodies can be recovered for many hours, if any are buried in the rear part. The bodies of Night Clerks Perry and Whiting are the only ones believed to be in the ruins. No bodies have been recovered since noon. Thayer and Ristry, the engineer and his assistant, were arraigned in court this morning charged with manslaughter. They declared that they were not responsible for the explosion.

French Cabinet Trouble.

PARIS, February 19.—In spite of the continued negotiations the settlement of the cabinet difficulty appears to be as distant as ever. The failure of Meline indicates the absolute impossibility of forming a cabinet on Ferryist or opportunist lines. President Carnot this day offered the premiership to Tirard only to meet with another refusal. He then summoned Meline whom he urged to make another effort, but he again declined to undertake the task and President Carnot then summoned Senator Mesgnin, a former minister and a well accredited report says that the president strongly inclines towards a cabinet formed mainly of senators. Such a ministry would have a better prospect of securing general support than a government composed of the more pronounced members of the chamber, but late this evening nothing has been settled.

Carew Arrested.

LONDON, Feb. 19.—James Laurence Carew, member of parliament for North Kildare, was arrested to day in the eastern division of Perthshire, where an election is being held to fill the vacancy in the house of commons, caused by the death of Mr. M[illegible]. Mr. Carew was taken into custody at the house of Mr. Kenloch, the Gladstonian contestant for the seat. He was arrested on a warrant issued against him in Ireland for refusing to answer a summons for violating the crimes act.

O'Brien Sent[illegible] Again.

DUBLIN, February 19.—When the case of William O'Brien was resumed at Tralee to day, O'Brien refused to allow Healy, his counsel, to apologize for the language the latter had used to Colonel Turner during the progress of the case yesterday. O'Brien also declined to make any further defense against the charges brought against him under the crimes act. The magistrate thereupon sentenced him to six months' imprisonment at hard labor.

Tariff Reform Convention.

CHICAGO, February 19.—The convention of the American Tariff Reform association opened this afternoon, Secretary John Z. White calling the meeting to order. He said the object of the convention was to arouse popular sentiment on the question of reform in the tariff and he read a letter from President Cleveland. Great applause greeted the reading and routine business was then taken up.

Law and Order Leagues.

BOSTON, February 19.—The seventh annual convention of the Citizens' Law and Order League of the United States was called to order this morning by President Bonney of Chicago who addressed the convention briefly. Toronto was fixed upon as the next place of meeting. President Bonney was re elected. In the long list of vice presidents is the name of J. M. Wallace of Colorado.

THE STREETS IN PARRISH'S ADDITION

Are 100 to 140 feet in width. THE ALLEYS are all 20 feet wide. There are no 60 or 80 feet streets, and narrow, 10-feet alleys, such as are found in other loudly advertised "Additions," with high sounding titles, where you pay high prices for lots, without duly considering that you are throwing away your money.

In the Alley Behind Every Lot in Parrish's Addition

There is a 3-inch Water Pipe, connected at Chestnut street with a 16-inch main; the Largest in the City's System. THE MAIN CITY DITCH, taking pure, clear water from the Fountain, runs just back of PARRISH'S ADDITION, and within a stone's throw of it.

YOU ARE SURE TO GET WATER

(Both from Pipes and Ditch) in PARRISH'S ADDITION if there is any water in the Fountain, even if other parts of the city are suffering from scarcity of the precious fluid.

REMEMBER THE FOREGOING, and then, when I tell you I will sell you a First-Class

Lot in Parrish's Addition for $350

To $1,000 a full size lot 50 by 190 feet do not hesitate a moment about buying. You can buy two lots on a corner, and erect pretty little cottages ACROSS THEM, giving each cottage a neat, pretty little yard, and readily rent them, owing to the location, etc.,

To Pay You 25 to 35 Per Cent Per Annum on the Entire Investment.

WHERE CAN YOU DO THIS ELSEWHERE?

THE STREET CAR LINE RUNS THROUGH PARRISH'S ADDITION, from East to West, and will doubtless soon be extended to the North, past the "Mesa Road," up to THE ROCK ISLAND SHOPS. Lots are sold on Terms to Suit Buyers, if possible.

The Great Glass Manufacturing Works

Are to be erected (at once) just south of CALVERT HEIGHTS. I have arranged to have every lot supplied with PURE WATER IN PIPES.

THE LOCATION IS SUPERB!

THE SURROUNDING VIEWS ARE MAGNIFICENT!

☞ Last year I recommended you to buy lots in Parrish's Addition, and they have paid a better Profit than any other lots on the market. This year I urge you to add to YOUR INVESTMENT AS MANY LOTS IN CALVERT HEIGHTS as you can afford to buy, with the result that, before the year is out, you will again be glad that you have taken my advice.

At the close of the meeting of the Woman's Aid society, next Saturday afternoon, there will be a meeting for the purpose of organizing the associated charities of Colorado Springs. Every one interested in the object is cordially invited to be present

The [illegible] Woman's Aid society will be held in the parlors of the Congregational church next Saturday afternoon at three o'clock. The board of directors will meet at the same place at half-past two o'clock. All ladies interested in the work of the society are invited to become members.

There were several misstatements in the GAZETTE'S real estate and building items on Sunday, although they were collected with care from presumably responsible persons. President Slocum states that no plans have as yet been adopted for the new club house. Four sets are being considered, two by Denver parties and those of the Western Building and Supply company, made by Mr. Lent, and those of Pelton & Barber.

The GAZETTE has several times spoken of the real estate firm of Schlessinger & White recently. Mr. White and Mr. Schlessinger have been occupying the same offices but have never formed a partnership. Mr. Schlessinger is about to locate in Pueblo, and the credit for the sales in Boulder Heights is due Mr White alone. Nine of the twenty four lots in block four of Boulder Heights were sold yesterday. One of the best corner lots was sold to a gentleman who intends to build a [illegible] residence upon it.

The twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the order of the Knights of Pythias occurs this evening and Myrtle lodge will celebrate the "Silver Anniversary" with a public entertainment. The following is the programme prepared:

The original Mendelssohn Quintette club, of Boston, will give a grand concert at the opera house Friday evening. In all the forty years of its existence this famous string quintette has never compassed better talent than at the present time. The veteran Thomas Ryan, with his clarionet, is still with them, and they boast the finest violoncellist in the United States. The last visit of the Mendelssohn Quintette to Colorado was at Christmas, 1888, with Mme. Christine Nilsson. The vocalist this time is Miss Alice Ryan, daughter of Mr. Thomas Ryan and a pupil of the famous Marchesi. A rare treat is in store for lovers of the genuinely good in music.

It is hard for residents of the slow-going towns of the east to realize how a city of two or three hundred, or even a thousand inhabitants can spring up in a few weeks in the rapidly growing west, but such is the case as has been often proved. Among the most notable instances of this kind in this immediate vicinity during the past few years has been the town of Falcon, twenty miles east on the Rock Island. Just about a year ago the final line which decided that the Rock Island road should cross the Denver, Texas and Ft Worth at that point, was made, and at that time the present site of Falcon was a barren piece of prairie. In September last the Falcon Town company was organized, with Mr Louis H Ehrlich as president, and to day the town has 200 inhabitants, a $6000 hotel, a postoffice, a school, a newspaper, a grocery, drug store, meat market, etc. Both of the railroads have built nice depots with restaurants attached. So great has been the growth of the town that it has completely absorbed the neighboring town of Granger. There is every reason why Falcon should be a continually growing and booming town, lying as it does in the cattle district and surrounded with a rich agricultural country. Its situation at the junction of these two great railroads gives it the best of shipping advantages, especially in the matter of coal, as the Rock Island's coal mines are only a few miles north. The future outlook for the town is bright indeed

Mr. Fe Curtis is on the sick list.

Mr. J. E. Nutter of Denver is registered at the Cliff.

[illegible]

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gee and Mr. Reed M. Kiss of Milwaukee arrived yesterday and are stopping at the Cliff.

[illegible]

The robbery of the attempted robbery at [illegible] on Monday night was the universal topic of conversation on the street yesterday. Very few more facts than were given yesterday morning could be learned. As Policeman Taylor stepped up to the door of the store he did not suspect anything wrong, as clerks and proprietors of different stores are often coming and going during the night. He spoke to the men asking them what they were doing, and one of them invited him in. He declined and again asked them what they were doing, when the man pointed the pistol at him and informed him that they were thieves and ordered him to cross the street until they could get away. As he moved away they fired at the door and the firing began. He thought all of the men went down West Huerfano street, but it is pretty certain that two of them turned the corner at the Gazette and went out East Huerfano. It is now thought that there were five of the men, as five sacks were found at the store. A quantity of silk goods was found on the floor behind one of the counters, where they were evidently making their selections. Inspection by daylight showed where three of the bullets struck. One of them pierced the three plate glass in front of the store, and it is thought the policeman's gun might have been accidentally discharged as he drew it from the holder. Another one spent itself in a tree in front of the Gazette, while a third entered the side glass in Fetcher & Son's window and buried itself in the frame of a large mirror in the room. The loss by breakage will be more than a hundred dollars. The police think they have some trace of the thieves. A strange man purchased five sacks at Halthusen's feed store about nine o'clock Monday night, and his description tallies with that of the one who talked with the policeman at the door. Considering that the moon was shining bright it was a bold piece of business.

Mayor Strickler is in receipt of the following letter from King Rex, who holds high carnival in Pueblo, beginning next Monday. The letter explains itself and is properly signed and sealed.

IN CAMP, AT BEAR LAKE,
IN THE ROCKY MOUNTAINS,
February 13th, 1889.

To the Mayor of Colorado Springs, Colo.:

By my special royal decree, Mardi Gras carnival at Pueblo is fixed for the week commencing Monday, February 25th, 1889, at which all my faithful subjects in the kingdom of the west will be present at the special wish and request of the sovereign, and nothing in excess of my kingdom shall be properly prepared for the grand pageant on Tuesday night of said carnival week.

I request that throughout my kingdom have made a half rate fare. It is there for my interest that your city be worthily represented by a float, and on account of your not being able to furnish the same my royal carpenters are now at work in Pueblo, and you will remit to my treasurer, A. V. Bradford, of the Stockmens' bank the sum of $[illegible] in payment. Nevertheless, enough of my faithful subjects from your city are expected to be present to ride in the float.

Given under my hand this [illegible] day, and year first above written.

Cabinet Conjectures.

INDIANAPOLIS, February 19.—Among the politicians here great doubt has been expressed today as to whether Wanamaker, Rusk, Thomas or, even Noble will be given seats in the cabinet. The greatest interest seems to be centered on the Pacific slope. Many republicans openly declare that if the slope is ignored and they refuse to admit that it will be. But after all there is nothing but conjecture for no one has any positive information on the subject. General Harrison and his family have actively begun work preparing for their removal to Washington.

The rumor that ex-Governor Fairchild of Wisconsin is to have a cabinet portfolio may not be without foundation. In the Chicago convention, Vermont's delegation with Proctor at the head, voted solidly for Harrison from the first ballot to the last.

One of General Harrison's callers the other day was Cassius M. Clay, the grand nephew of Henry Clay. It was he who nominated General William Henry Harrison in the whig convention at Harrisburg in 1840. Mr. Clay has taken an active part in twelve national campaigns. His visit to General Harrison, he said, was non-political, as he had nothing to ask for either himself or friends.

Sir John MacDonald the Canadian premier, is said to have in mind a plan for the dissolution of the parliament and an immediate appeal to the people against annexation. Should the premier decide upon this course Americans will watch the election with much interest. The annexationists would probably be overwhelmingly defeated at an election now, but the sentiment is said to be steadily growing rapidly and it would be interesting to see just how strong it is with the masses.

The board of aldermen of New York are very indignant because Mayor Grant has refused to allow the city to pay for the gloves and carriage used by the aldermen at the funeral of the late ex-President and Governor Dix. Mayor Grant very sensibly says in refusing his consent: "You have no right to put your hand into the pocket of the public to do honor to a man who was not a public officer at the time of his death." Mayor Grant seems to have some of the faculty for saying no at the right time which his distinguished father possessed. Last year the board of aldermen made an appropriation of the city funds for a similar purpose, but Mayor Hewitt promptly vetoed it and accompanied his veto with a sharp and well merited rebuke.

About a week ago the senate committee which is investigating the affairs of the superintending architect's office at Washington called Chief Clerk Fister before it as a witness. Colonel Fister, among other questions was asked whether he had received any money from the employes of his office for campaign purposes, &c., but refused to answer the question on the ground that it was private business. On Monday Colonel Fister was again called before the committee and given another opportunity to answer the question but again refused. The committee has not yet decided what steps they will take in the matter. If Colonel Fister has taken money from the clerks in his office for campaign purposes, and his refusal to answer the question of the committee would seem to indicate that he has, he has grossly violated the civil service law. The law makes it a crime to either solicit or receive from any government employe money for campaign purposes and does a heavy penalty. While Colonel Fister may find it convenient to regard the question of whether he violated this law of congress as private business, the senate, when the matter is laid before it by the committee may differ with him and Colonel Fister may be summoned to the bar of that body to explain himself.

The establishment of a national university at Washington is being strongly advocated by Andrew D. White and other men prominent in educational circles. This subject is by no means a new one. President Washington bequeathed in his will fifty shares of stock of the Potomac company toward the endowment of a university to be established in the District of Columbia under the auspices of the national government. America recently published Washington's views on the subject as expressed in his will. He says:

"Impressed with the idea that it has always been a source of regret with me, to see the youth of these United States sent to foreign seminaries for the finishing polish, often before their minds were fully prepared, or they had imbibed any adequate idea of the happiness of their own country, or a proper sense of their duties to mankind, as citizens of the world, not only but to a spirit of disaffection and extravagance, but all views unfriendly to equal liberty and to the true and sole liberties of mankind, which other countries are formed to oppose, for these reasons it has been my ardent wish to see a plan formed on a liberal scale which would have a tendency to diffuse a systematic liberal spirit through all parts of this rising empire, to wipe away with local attachments and state prejudices, as far as the nature of things would admit, and to teach the youth of our national country, looking anxiously forward to the benefits to be derived from such an object as this is in my estimation, my mind has not been able to conceive any plan more likely to promote the object than the establishment of a university in a central part of the United States, to which the youths of fortune and talents from all parts of the union might be sent for the completion of their education, in all those branches of polite literature, the arts and sciences, in a perfect knowledge in the principles of politics and good government, and as a matter of infinite importance, in my judgment, by associating with each other and forming friendships in juvenile years be productive in future in the prevention of prejudices and national jealousies which have just been mentioned, and which, when carried to extremity are never-failing sources of hatred to the public mind and spirit of all those who oppose it to this country."

SENATE.

DENVER, February 19.—In the senate to day the stock committee made a report relative to the request of the governor of Kansas that a committee of five consisting of two senators and three representatives of the Colorado legislature attend a meeting to be held in St Louis in March to look into the beef trust. A resolution that the committee be appointed and sent and that Governor Cooper notify the governor of Kansas of the action of the legislature was incorporated in the report.

The committee on county affairs reported favorably on the bill to establish Wolcott, Adams and Cheyenne counties.

The military committee reported favorably on the bill for a soldiers home.

An adverse report was then adopted relative to the proposed county of Moffat.

The following bills were then passed:

S. B. No 240, a bill for an act to facilitate the recovery of gold and silver taken by theft or trespass and to provide a punishment there for.

S. B. No 120, a bill to provide for the service of summons on defendant corporations in suits brought against such corporations before justices of the peace in the state of Colorado.

S. B. No. [illegible] a bill for an act to amend section 35 of chapter 62 of the general statutes.

S. B. No. 152, a bill for an act to amend section 4 of chapter 14 of the general statutes entitled "Chattel Mortgages."

S. B. No 243, a bill for an act to amend section 83, chapter 94 of the general statutes.

The following named nominations, made some days ago by Governor Cooper, were to day confirmed by the senate. Adjutant general, Benjamin F. Rice, inspector general, M. K. Sullivan, warden of the penitentiary, Joseph A. Lamping; commissioner of the penitentiary, James M Wilson; forest commissioner, E. T. Ensign, dairy commissioner, A. R. Kennedy; fish commissioner, Gordon Land; member of the board of the state industrial school, James M Morris, members of the board of the school of mines, Edward F. Brown and James T. Smith; for the regular term and to fill a vacancy (for two years) J. P Kelley, police magistrate, Samuel D. Barnes of Denver.

The senate then took a recess until 8 p. m.

HOUSE

In the house, after the preliminary business had been disposed of, Bartholomew offered a petition from the T. V. Powderly Assembly No. 6 of Leadville, praying that H. B. No 30 be passed as soon as possible. The petition was referred to the mines and mining committee.

The following bills were read for the third time and passed:

H. B. No. 76, a bill for an act concerning coal miners.

H. B. No. 112, a bill for an act for the relief of J. B. Ware. The emergency clause was also adopted.

H. B. No. 183, a bill for an act to establish Arbor day.

H. B. No. 188, a bill for an act to amend an act entitled "An act to create the office of chaplain of the penitentiary and to provide the salary thereof," approved April 6, 1885.

H. B. No. 146, a bill for an act to provide for the erection of additional buildings for the institution for the mute and blind of Colorado. The emergency clause was also added.

Adjourned.

Colorado Legislature.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, February 19.—The committee on privileges and elections to which was referred the resolutions offered by Chandler and Gibson, providing for an investigation of the recent election in Louisiana and other states, reported the resolutions favorably and they were laid on the table.

The same committee also reported a resolution instructing the committee on privileges and elections to inquire whether in any state the free and lawful expression of the will of the people, in the election of members to the fifty first congress and the ascertaining of the results thereof have been prevented by violence, intimidation, fraud or any other crime. Also to inquire into the election in Louisiana in April, 1888. Also to inquire whether that state has a republican form of government. The committee is to report at the session of congress to be held in December, 1889.

Saulsbury in behalf of the democratic members of the committee on privileges and elections, expressed utter dissent from the resolution on the ground that the senate has no jurisdiction.

The resolution was laid over till to-morrow.

After the routine business had been transacted the senate proceeded to the consideration of Vest's motion to reconsider the vote by which the conference report on the direct tax bill was agreed to last Saturday.

After considerable debate the motion to reconsider was rejected—yeas 8, nays 42.

The senate then took up the sundry civil appropriation bill.

The amendment appropriating $10 000 each for statues of General Philip H. Sheridan and General John A. Logan to be erected in Washington was agreed to and Daniel gave notice that after all the committee amendments had been disposed of he would offer an amendment making an appropriation for the erection of a statue of General Winfield Scott Hancock.

Without completing the bill the senate adjourned.
